

Families of all sorts

Families come in all shapes and sizes. We might live with them, we might not. We might be related by blood, we might not. We might not always get along with every member of our family, but they definitely play a part in making us who we are.

1. A book about a character who does not live with his or her parents.

☐ _____

2. A novel set at a boarding school or a picture book about a group of animal friends.

☐ _____

3. A book about siblings.

☐ _____

4. A story with a prominent aunt or uncle OR a story with a same-sex relationship.

☐ _____

5. A story that features a grandparent.

☐ _____

The Quilchena Reading Challenges are for all students, teachers, and parents. The categories are designed to be applicable to any and all reading levels. As a reader, you get to choose how long, how hard, and in what format the books are to complete this challenge. I trust you to make good choices for yourself.