

Quilchena Reading Challenge—April (alternate)

Get Caught Reading . . .

You probably have a favourite place to sit and read at home. You might have a few. You might be finding, these days, that you need to seek out new, interesting places to read because your usual spots are, well, a little overused at the moment. This month, you have an alternate Reading Challenge: to Get Caught Reading in unusual places.

Be creative! Take a photograph of yourself for each category and send it to Mme Brogan (details in the blog post.) Try to be reading a different book in each photo.

1. ...under a tree

☐ _____

2. ...surrounded by soft things.

☐ _____

3. ...with a family member.

☐ _____

4. ...while you're eating.

☐ _____

5. ...in public (but not too close to anybody.)

☐ _____

The Quilchena Reading Challenges are for all students, teachers, and parents. The categories are designed to be applicable to any and all reading levels. As a reader, you get to choose how long, how hard, and in what format the books are to complete this challenge. I trust you to make good choices for yourself.