

Total: /30

Name: _____

Student #: _____

Career Preparation Safety Orientation Quiz

1. What is the definition of a "New or Young Worker"? /2

2. Each young or new worker must be given an orientation and training. Thirteen topics must be included in that orientation. List at least 10 of them.

/10

3. When must the employer provide additional orientation and/or training?

/2

4. True or false? Is it necessary for the employer to keep records of any orientation or training?

/1

5. What is the definition of "injury"? What is the definition of "an injured worker"? And what is the definition of "first aid"?

/4

6. Are first aid records mandatory? If so, how long must they be kept?

/2

7. Is a person allowed “refusal of unsafe work”? If a person refuses to work under these conditions what must that person immediately do?

/2

8. An employer must ensure that if there is a risk the employer is given education in the WHMIS Program. What does the acronym “WHMIS” stand for?

/1

9. Any worker who works with or around a “controlled substance” must be instructed in (list 4):

/4

10. Name the 2 checklists that WHMIS and WorkSafeBC suggest each employer - worker use before starting a new job.

/2