

Economics 12 Course Outline

Economics 12 is an introductory look at economics and economic principles. An analysis of the effects of economic activity on ourselves, our nation, and the global community will be explored.

Textbook:

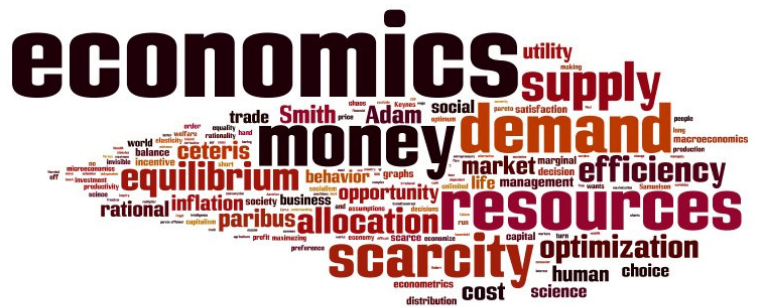

Exploring Macroeconomics, Third Canadian Edition, Sexton, Fortura, Kovacs. Nelson Education Ltd., Toronto, Ontario, 2013.

Supplies:

Binder, paper, writing utensils, calculator, ruler

Course Topics: (may include but is not limited to)

- The Role and Method of Economics
- Scarcity, Trade-Offs, and Production Possibilities
- Supply and Demand
- Introduction to Macro economy
- Measuring Economic Performance
- Economic Growth in The Global Economy
- Fiscal Policy
- Money and The Banking System
- The Bank of Canada
- Monetary Policy
- International Trade and Finance
- History of Economic Theory

Assessment and Evaluation

- Assignments
- Chapter quizzes and tests
- Presentations
- Projects

Procedures:

- a. Classroom Cell Phone Policy: Your cell phone(s) must be SILENT and out of sight. They will be collected for all Quizzes and Tests.
- b. Regular attendance is expected. All absences must be excused either with a note or a phone call, directly to me, from your parent or guardian.
- c. BE ON TIME!!
- d. It is the student’s responsibility to make up any missed course work.
- e. Skipping classes is unacceptable and you will receive “0” for the work missed during that class –whether it is an assignment, test or quiz.
- f. Missed QUIZZES due to an excused absence cannot be made up. If you have a valid reason the mark will be omitted/exempted, if not you will receive a ‘zero’ mark. If you miss a TEST due to an absence it can be made up only with a note or phone call from home.
- g. Overall class conduct, participation and use of class time will determine the Work Habits mark for report cards.

Grading:

A	86%	C	60%
B	73%	C-	50%
C+	67%	I/F	49% -

The mark for this course will consist of the following:

Assignments, Quizzes, Presentations/Projects	30% - 50%
Tests	50% - 60%

