

How to buy a car

A major assignment

The Purpose...

In this activity you will prepare a document outlining the selection, research and assessment of the potential purchase of a car. Some of the work needed to complete this assignment will have to be accomplished outside of class time, and beyond classroom resources.

The Preparation...

For this activity you will need the following:

- | | |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Pen | <input type="checkbox"/> Scissors |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Paper | <input type="checkbox"/> Glue or tape |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Newspaper clippings | <input type="checkbox"/> Internet access |

The Procedure...

Your document will contain the following:

- | | | |
|----|---|-------------------|
| 1. | Title page depicting the vehicle you have chosen to study | 10 marks |
| 2. | Table of contents | 5 marks |
| 3. | 5 listed examples of the vehicle depicting the range of market value | 5 marks |
| 4. | A list of 3 useful, informative websites with information dedicated to and specific for this specific vehicle | 10 marks |
| 5. | A list of 5 useful, informative websites with information on how to purchase a car
5 mark bonus if nobody else has any of your websites listed | 5 marks |
| 6. | A list of the component systems of the vehicle you would inspect, and detail what you would look for, specific to the faults of THAT vehicle | 10 marks |
| 7. | (BONUS)
Select one of the cars you found locally, and go look at it. Describe the condition of the vehicle and describe why (in your opinion) it is worth (or not worth) the asking price. | BONUS
15 marks |