

Quilchena Reading Challenge—December 2020

Stories to bring back the light

The winter solstice is on December 21st. Celebrate the longest nights by sitting comfortably and letting yourself be carried away by a great story.

Take your time to find the just right stories for you in this moment; this challenge doesn't have to be completed until we return to school after the break.

1. A book with the word light or dark(ness) in the title.

☐ _____

2. A fantasy story.

☐ _____

3. A book about sleep.

☐ _____

4. An inspirational story.

☐ _____

5. A book that you did NOT borrow from the Quilchena library.

☐ _____

The Quilchena Reading Challenges are for all students, teachers, and parents. You can read or listen to your books. The categories are designed to be applicable to any and all reading levels. As a reader, you get to choose how long, how hard, and in what format the books are to complete this challenge. I trust you to make good choices for yourself.
