

RAINBOW By Lora Bird ~ Pink Day 2014

Our bodies are different but our hearts are the same

We all feel joy we all feel pain

With kindness and pride, we stand side by side

Being an ally means that you know

It takes many colours to make a rainbow

Gender won't decide the choices we make

Some boys like dressing up, some girls like catching snakes

CHORUS

Who? Who? Who? Chooses what I want to play?

Who's always with me at the end of the day?

Who? Who? Who? Chooses what I want to wear?

How do I show I care?

Just going along won't make you belong

Being cruel isn't cool...respect makes us strong

With kindness and pride, we stand by side by side

CHORUS Bridge

Change your mood, Change your mind

You're truly unique, one of a kind

So you be you I'll be me

Acceptance sets us free....!
